

The Scott Farm Orchard

Ecologically Grown Apples

CSA Fruit Share

We are offering fruit shares for nine weeks starting the second week of September. The season opens with half peck bags of our freshest picked traditional farm stand apples combined with an assortment of our heirloom varieties. As the season progresses, we'll add plums and pears to the apple mix. Participants will get weekly emails with the selections of the week, their history and best use and some recipes and musings as well. The cost will be $62.00 for the season.

If you would like to join our CSA, please fill out the membership form and return it with a check payable to: The Scott Farm, 707 Kipling Road, Dummerston, VT 05301.

Stop by the farm this fall to visit our self-serve farm stand where you may purchase our heirloom apples, plums, pears, nectarines, apricots, quince, medlars, maple syrup, jams, jellies, baked goods and freshly pressed heirloom apple cider. Visit us on Heirloom Apple Day, the Sunday of Columbus Day weekend to sample some of the 100 varieties of apples grown on our hillside orchard. Give us a call and make a reservation for our On the Farm Heirloom Apple Harvest Dinner the last Saturday in October. Or sign up for one of our many workshops and learn about bee-keeping, plum tarts, making hard cider and heirloom apple pies to just to name a few!
